

C O N N E C T E D URBANDEVELOPMENT

G L O B A L C O N F E R E N C E 2 0 0 8

Marcos da Cunha e Lorena Perestrello de Vasconcellos

Vice-Mayor, Lisbon

Marcos da Cunha e Lorena Perestrello de Vasconcellos is the Vice-Mayor of Lisbon, Portugal. Educated as an attorney, de Vasconcellos has a record of nearly 20 years of public service.

Prior to assuming his current role, de Vasconcellos served as General-Director of the Centre of Information Mediation and Arbitration to Automobile Insurance (CIMASA); was Chief of Staff to the Secretary of State of Internal Administration; was Adviser to the Minister for Parliament Affairs; and served as Collaborator of “Jornal de Letras Artes e Ideias.”

In addition, de Vasconcellos is a member of Parliament; the National Secretariat, for organization, of the Socialist Party; and the National Commission/National Political Commission of the Socialist Party.

He earned a law degree from the Classic University of Lisbon.

Connecting Cities: Innovation for Sustainability

February 20—21, 2008 • San Francisco, CA

