Growing with Technology Awards 2003

Cisco Growing with Technology Awards 2003 sponsored by Cisco Systems, recognizes the ways small- to medium-sized organizations are using technology innovations to unleash their potential through the power of the Internet and network.

Have you used networking technology or the Internet to enter new markets or introduce new products? To streamline operations or improve communications? To increase productivity, improve customer service, or expand services? If so, you could be one of this year's winners.

The competition is open to any organization of 999 employees or fewer, with contestants vying for recognition in one of five categories. These categories recognize the creative ways small- to medium-sized organizations are using the Internet and networking technologies in the following areas:

- Sales and Marketing
- Customer Relationship
- Operational Excellence
- E-Commerce
- Non-profit/Public Sector

The panel of judges includes a prestigious cross-section of industry leaders in the small- and medium-sized business market. Past winners have ranged from a small scuba dive shop to a collection services agency. One thing they've all had in common was a drive to succeed through the innovative use of technology.

Entries will be accepted from June 1 through July 31, 2003. Winners will be announced and honored at a special ceremony hosted by Cisco and the governing panel of judges.

Cisco Growing with Technology Awards 2003 is open only to organizations with 999 or fewer employees in the 50 United States, the District of Columbia, and Canada. Void where prohibited by law. Cisco Systems, Inc. and related companies as well as their employees are not eligible. Subject to all federal, state, provincial and local laws and regulations.
